

JUSTICE ACROSS CULTURES

Monday, March 8, 2004

Hassenfeld Conference Center, Brandeis University

SPONSORED BY:

The International Center for Ethics, Justice, and Public Life at Brandeis University

The Zalman Shazar Center for Jewish History, Jerusalem

SESSION I JUSTICE ACROSS CULTURES: HISTORICAL, THEORETICAL, 9:00 – 11:00 AND LEGAL PERSPECTIVES

Moderator: Michael Willrich, Brandeis University

Participants: Ayelet Shachar, University of Toronto—Justice, Culture, and the Problem of Gender

David Heyd, Hebrew University of Jerusalem—Can Justice be Extended to the Global Sphere?

Eric Cheyfitz, Cornell University—The Force of Translation in the Foundation of U.S. Federal Indian Law

SESSION II INTERSECTIONS OF INTERNATIONAL AND DOMESTIC JUSTICE 11:15 – 1:15

Moderator: Bernard Yack, Brandeis University

Participants: Kamari Clarke, Yale University—Human Rights Revisited: The International Criminal Court and the Cultural Politics of Implementation

Yasemin Sosyal, University of Essex—Identity, Rights, and Claims Making

Sally Merry, Wellesley College—Tensions Between Global and Local Situations: CEDAW and the Problem of Rape in Fiji

Brian Concannon, Bureau des Avocats Internationaux—Haiti: International Law in National Trials?

1:15 – 2:15 BREAK FOR LUNCH

SESSION III RESTORATIVE JUSTICE: RECONCILIATION, REPARATIONS, 2:35 – 4:30 AND FORGIVENESS

Moderator: Cindy Cohen, Brandeis University

Participants: Leigh Payne, University of Wisconsin—In Search of Remorse: Confessions by Perpetrators of Past State Violence

Omar Dajani, McGeorge School of Law, University of the Pacific—'End of conflict' and Other Fallacies: Competing Visions of Justice in the New Middle East

Dumisa Ntsebeza—Transitional Justice in the South African Context

Academic Co-Directors

Marion Smiley, Departments of Philosophy and Women's Studies, Brandeis University

Leigh Swigart, Associate Director, International Center for Ethics, Justice and Public Life, Brandeis University